Background & Scope

The Canadian College of Technology and Business (CCTB) provides several intakes throughout the year. We are committed to providing support to students who cannot start at one of our scheduled intakes – providing them with different options to enable them to start their academic journey with CCTB as soon as possible.

This policy applies to all incoming CCTB students.

Purpose of the Policy

The following policy outlines the conditions under which a new student to be enrolled at the Canadian College of Technology and Business, hereinafter CCTB, may request to defer to a subsequent intake. ‘Late Enrolment’ is defined as joining a program after the designated program start date for which the initial Letter of Admission (LOA) was issued.

Policy Statement

1. Late Enrolment Deadline

1.1. CCTB strongly advises international students wishing to enrol after a designated program start date (for any reason) to first consult with a Registered Canadian Immigration Consultant (RCIC) and visit the IRCC website (<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english>) for bylaws and regulations for international students and study permits.

1.2. Block Schedule Programs: Students in Block Schedule programs (i.e., programs with practicum/co-op or work-study/fast-track streams) are allowed late enrolment until the tenth day of the first class module after the designated program start date.

1.3. Credit Programs: Students in Credit Programs (i.e., programs with 12-14 week semester schedules) are allowed late enrolment until the tenth (10th) day after the designated program start date.

1.4. Students who need to defer their acceptance to the next intake must submit their request in writing to their Recruitment Officer and the designated Admissions Officer as stipulated in the CCTB Deferment of Enrolment Policy. This request must be forwarded to the Associate Director, Student Services/Registrar for approval.

1.5. Requests for late enrolment can only be approved by the Associate Director, Student Services/Registrar.

2. Late Enrolment Consequences

2.1. Deferral approval means that the student will receive a new Letter of Admission (LOA) and a reserved seat in the subsequent intake.

2.2. Students must approach their Recruitment Officer and their Admissions Officer to request a deferral to the next intake.

2.3. Current CCTB students wishing to discontinue their studies are subject to the CCTB Withdrawal Policy and CCTB Student Leave of Absence Policy and must fill out the Withdraw Form.
